Innovate • Collaborate • Serve

CCSU is proud to partner with LEARN to offer this regional cohort-based Sixth Year Certificate program in Educational Leadership. Aspiring school leaders will work with faculty from CCSU's School of Education and Professional Studies to learn and apply effective practices of school leadership and improvement. Our off-campus cohorts offer an exciting opportunity to participate in a rigorous program grounded in research-based practices in school leadership, while customizing the experience for direct application to meet the needs of local districts and communities. This is a CSDE-approved preparation program for the Intermediate Administrator 092 certificate. Approximately half of the program's courses will be offered onsite at LEARN, with the remainder meeting at CCSU in New Britain.

Special Education Concentration (optional)

In collaboration with the Department of Special Education at CCSU, we are able to offer a unique concentration within the Sixth Year program for educators interested in specializing some of their leadership coursework in the area of Special Education. Three courses (EDL 605, EDL 620, and EDL 630) may be substituted with three alternative versions of those classes that focus more specifically on Special Education:

SPED 605 Special Education Leadership in Teaching and Learning

SPED 620 Collaborative Leadership for Special Education Leaders

SPED 630 Special Education Law, Ethics & Equity

For students interested in this option, these courses are taken separately from the rest of the cohort courses.

Admissions Requirements

- Master's Degree from regionally accredited institution of higher education
- 3.00 minimum GPA in post-baccalaureate courses; 2.7 undergraduate GPA
